Description

A newly refurbished ground floor unit with level access suitable for office, retail, Medical/Consulting or other uses within Class E. The unit has been refurbished and is arranged as two areas with private toilets and a kitchen capable of further sub-division. The unit is self contained with signage options & has an extensive window frontage with electric shutters.

Location

Ferdinand Street is located off Chalk Farm Road opposite the Stables Market and the New Camden Goods Yard. It is a key route between Camden, Kentish Town, Belsize Park & Hampstead Heath. The area is undergoing extensive development with over 1,000 flats & circa 400 student rooms in planning or under construction. The temporary Morrisons store will move to a new purpose built unit in the Goods Yard and the site redeveloped as shops with offices above. Chalk Farm Underground Station is just a few minutes walk and Kentish Town West(Overground) is also close by. These provide excellent access North & South and East West between Stratford & Richmond. Camden Lock & the Stables provide an array of Street Foods and leisure activities whilst there are cafes, bars & restaurants on Chalk Farm Road.
